DEDICATION

"A teacher affects eternity;
he can never tell
where his influence stops."
. . . Henry Adams

Mr. John W. Cameron

The Class of 1964
affectionately dedicates
THE TIDE
to
Mr. John W. Cameron
and
Mr. Robert Witham
with a deep appreciation
for their sympathetic interest,
their high ideals,
and their exemplary teaching.

Mr. Robert N. Witham

ADMINISTRAT

School Committee: Elizabeth S. Hatch, Sec., Richard R. Ketchum, David Ellis, William C. MacDonald, Superintendent Edwin Martinson, and Chairman Robert F. Archer.

We, the Class of 1964, have had the benefit of twelve years of Marshfield schooling. The excellence of our educational environment during our years is due in great measure to the thoughtful leadership of the School Committee and to the able management of Mr. Burgess, Mr. Romeo, and Mr. Martinson. They have provided us with a solid foundation upon which to build our future. We, the Seniors, wish to thank them for their untiring efforts.

ION

Mr. Edwin A. Martinson,
Superintendent of Schools

Mr. James P. Romeo,
Principal

Mr. Richard J. Burgess,
Assistant Principal

In Memoriam

JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY

1917-1963

35th President

of the United States

"All generous hearts lament the leader killed,
The young chief with the smile, the radiant face,
The winning way that turned a wondrous race
Into sublimer pathways, leading on.
Grant to us life that though the man be gone,
The promise of his spirit be fulfilled."

-- John Masefield

ACADEMIC ACTIVITY

Although our school gives due attention to extracurricular activities, the most important phase of our school life is the academic. The curriculum emphasizes preparation for further study. Most students in the college course and many in the business course go on to college; graduates of our school have been accepted at many of the country's top colleges. The business and general courses also provide terminal education for those students whose needs are thereby fulfilled. Preparation for a life of maximum service in accordance with each pupil's individual talents is our goal.

RECEPTIONISTS

The receptionists do a great deal to help Marshfield High School run smoothly. Before classes begin in the morning, they are busy collecting attendance slips. Each girl gives up one period of study time in order to receive people entering the school on business. She also runs errands for teachers and office secretaries and assists in the office.

Mr. Romeo and Mr. Burgess examine the daily attendance.

JUNIORS

We, the class of 1965, three-year veterans in the fields of studies, sports, and social activities, dedicate the remainder of our careers at M.H.S. to the upholding of school spirit and standards. This year has been a full but rewarding one for our class. On December 6, we presented LITTLE NELL, THE ORPHAN GIRL, under the direction of Mr. Benoit. The entire class was busy selling candy to friends and parents to boost our treasury. We held a successful record hop in January, followed by a formal dance in the Spring for the Seniors.

As upperclassmen we have shouldered our many new responsibilities and are now looking forward to a challenging and successful year as Seniors.

FRESHMEN

Oh! The joys, tribulations, and wonder of being freshmen! Each day was filled with new experiences -- some pleasant, others not agreeable. The amazing and unusual decor of our surroundings urged us to stimulating discoveries both in the classroom and outside activities. We are anxiously awaiting our sophomore year and we give our best to the class of 1964.

A. Adler, G. Gilbert, D. Emery, M. Patch, S. McCauley, R. White, D. Robicheau, K. Pearl, D. Griffiths, Mrs. Saunders.

SOPHOMORES

Well, we made it! From complete nobodies . . . we are sophomores. Graduation seems only half a lifetime away now, and today's sophomores are striving to make this year a memorable one. With middle-classmanship comes the traditional duties, which we hope will contribute to our growing treasury, and round out an exciting and productive year at M.H.S. We stand as the reservoir from which the varsity in all fields will be drawn. We can guarantee candy at the games, a December dance, and an evening of relaxed enjoyment at the March class play. Our class, the class of 1966, has enjoyed its first two years of high school and is looking forward to the challenge and responsibility of upperclassmen.

Mr. Cesarini, M. Rand, V. Lyons, L. Loughran, R. Chandler, F. Ainslie, W. Reese, S. Ferguson, J. Anderson.

Co-editors: Kathleen Crowley, Marguerite Russell.

TIDE STAFF

We offer this volume to you, hoping that you will find it, as we do, a distillation of the spirit of Marshfield High School and of our warm friends throughout the town. To those who have given so generously of their time and talent, we say thank you. And thus, as the tide of our schooldays ebbs, may our TIDE perpetuate the ideals and standards of our school, the influence of our fine faculty, and the friendships we have made; and through the future may it be an inspiration to us to attain in the world the greatest heights of character and service.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Our student council serves as the agency through which we voice our opinions. This organization provides a meeting of our minds with those of the teachers and administrators. Together we resolve school problems, express hopes, and recommend changes in plans. This flow of ideas between us and the adults working in the same school creates a friendly climate conducive to the learning process. Our two projects this year are: the "adoption" of a foreign child in a foreign land and the development of an orientation program for transfer students to our high school. Our council was extremely proud to have Eleanor Duane elected as the first woman president of the Southeastern District of Associated Bodies of Massachusetts Student Councils. As president, Ellie presides at the fall and spring conventions of this sixty-member organization whose membership comprises about 48,000 students. We are happy to have Mr. John Cameron as our Adviser.

HONOR SOCIETY

At our Honor Society's Spring Induction in April 1963, eleven new members were inducted. Mary Baker, Helen Burgess, Kathleen Crowley, Kathleen Curren, Eleanor Duane, Cynthia Knowles, Gail Michael, Martin Plante, Donald Roswell, and Marguerite Russell were honored and we proudly accepted our pins and certificates.

We held our first meeting and elected officers for the school year 1963-1964. We chose Gail Michael, President; Maggie Russell, Vice President; Cynthia Knowles, Secretary, Helen Burgess, Treasurer; and Ellie Duane, Head Monitor.

At our Fall Induction in October 1963 we welcomed five new members. Susan Caswell, Daniel Russell, Pamela Smith, Marilyn Tradd, and Karla Wood accepted their well-deserved honors at the traditional ceremony.

Our fund-raising activity was the "Harvest Hop" held on Saturday, October 19, 1963. Pumpkins, scare crows, and corn stocks provided the appropriate atmosphere and everyone certainly harvested fun! A dance contest was held and we awarded prizes for the best fast and slow dances.

Throughout the year we served as monitors, hosts and representatives at various functions and devoted ourselves to upholding the standards of the National Honor Society.

Mr. Romeo addresses the convocation.

LIBRARY CLUB 1963-1964

The library, which gives all students access to literature and information, is a vital segment of Marshfield High School. The Library Club, under the direction of Miss Helen Andrews, Librarian, assists in the library. The numerous tasks of running the library keep the student librarians busy; they stamp, sort, and stack books. They sponsor their Book Fair each November. There hundreds of inexpensive paperbacks are on sale. Club President Martha Ranaghan has directed a successful year of service.

This year eight Marshfield High School seniors were honored for their excellent performance on the National Merit Scholarship Test, given in the Spring of 1963. Each honored student received a formal Letter of Commendation signed by Principal James P. Romeo and Mr. John M. Stalnaker, President of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

The Semi-Finalists and Commended students constitute about two per cent of all high school seniors throughout the country. Mr. Stalnaker said, "This certainly signifies noteworthy accomplishment by all these bright youngsters . . . we urge the students honored to develop to the fullest their promise of achievement."

Superintendent Martinson congratulates Mr. Romeo.

The task of the Audio-Visual Club is to manage the presentation of filmstrips, records, and movies for the teachers. Its work enriches and supplements textbook information, making courses more interesting for the students. Consisting of eleven members, the club is probably the hardest-working activity group in Marshfield High School. The club members are constantly trundling their heavy equipment up and down the halls to satisfy the many and varied needs of the faculty. Mr. Anderson, the adviser, directs the activities of the group and instructs its members in the use of the complicated projectors and phonographs.

The success which Marshfield High School enjoys in athletics derives not only from our teams but also from our coaching staff, which is under the direction of Mr. James G. Anderson, Director of Athletics. These men and women succeed in producing winning teams year after year. More important, these leaders instill in their players a fine sense of sportsmanship. Both the team members and the student body thank these coaches for their inspiration and service to the youth of Marshfield.

Grid Officials Honor Marshfield Coach

BOSTON. — The Coach-of the-Year plaque was presented to Coach Jim Anderson of Marshfield High School here last night at the annual meeting of the Association of New England Football Officials held at the Hotel Beaconsfield.

Anderson, who joined the Marshfield school system in 1948, was singled out by the officials as the sixth high school coach to receive such an award.

The award, presented by association president Hillary Keane, is given annually to the high school coach who has maintained the high ethical standards demanded of the football coaching profession and for his devotion to teaching the game of football to boys.

With over 300 present, tributes were paid to Anderson by Marshfield school officials Edwin A. Martinson, superintendent and James F. Romeo, principal.

"It just isn't his coaching ability that makes Jim such a great asset. It's his influence on the boys," stated the Marshfield High principal.

Anderson, who has established a 63-30-7 football record since 1948, has had one undefeated eleven, that in the 1959-60 season, when his team posted an 8-0 mark.

Also on hand were members of the Rams with the four co-captains including, Don Henderson, Harry Tingley, Jon Lambert and Steve Keith.

Murray Lewis, commissioner of officials, was master of ceremonies for the program.

Captain Donal Henderson, Carleton Chandler.

Although the boys' basketball team started their season slowly, a win over potent Scituate cheered them to many victories. Leading the scoring punch was Senior Captain Don Henderson. The offensive and defensive strength of Dick Nicholson and Carleton Chandler predicts the strength of next year's team. Coach John Erickson and his team received enthusiastic support from Marshfield fans.

1964 was a season of improvement for the junior varsity. Lack of experience was the main factor in the boys' inability to make the winning column as often as they would have liked. Coach Warren Searfoss was the only injured team member; the school sympathized with the leg cast which he dragged through the halls.

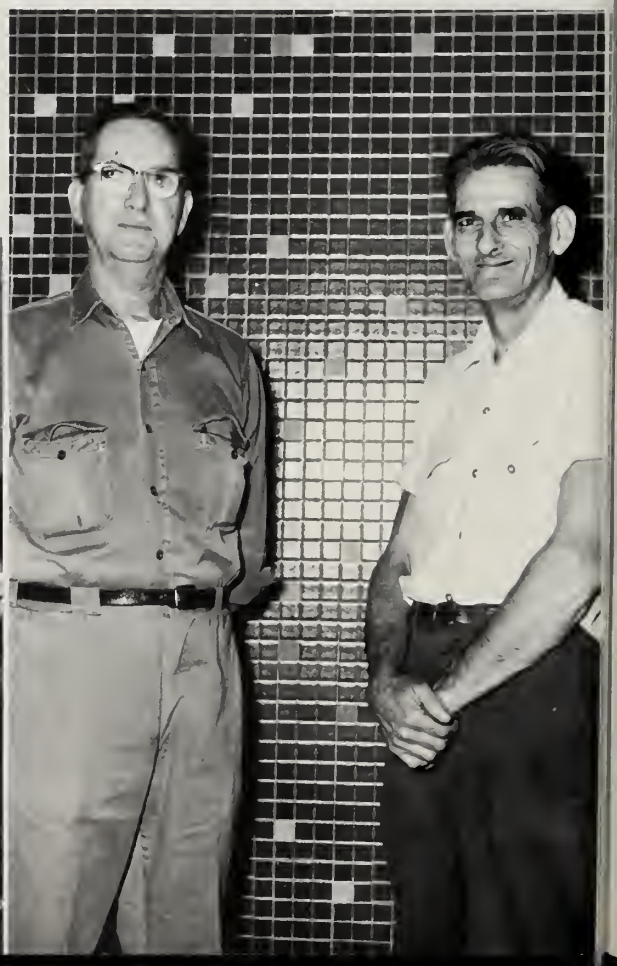
CULINARY AND CUSTODIAL STAFFS

A school, like an army, travels on its stomach. Our school is fortunate to have a fine culinary staff whose excellent meals keep the students moving. The lunchline scramble is a demonstration of the popularity of the food served in the cafeteria.

We are also fortunate in our custodial staff. In a hundred ways they help to keep the school running smoothly. We thank both the culinary and custodial staffs for the service they have shown in making our years in Marshfield High happy.

Frank Doherty and Alvin Marks.



Robert Joyce and Thomas A. Tradd, Head Custodian.
